Community Living fundraises for fire victims

Christine Bennett
Reporter

Community Living Hanover & Area members and staff showed their support for Owen Sound fire victims by hosting a bake sale fundraiser Aug. 19.

The by-donation bake sale raised $323.20 for the United Way of Bruce Grey, which has played a key role in supporting the victims.

Four full laundry bins of nonperishable food items were also collected and donated to the Salvation Army.

The fundraiser follows the Aug. 10 blazes that left 41 people homeless.

Anyone interested in donating can visit www.donatetoday.ca or call 2-1-1.

Community Living staff needed to find a long table to fit all of the goodies that were donated for the bake sale.
